Work Hard. Play Hard. Make a Difference!

I'm writing to express my enthusiastic support for Justin Brown in his campaign for Cowlitz County Commissioner, District 2. Having known Justin both professionally and personally for nearly seven years, I can confidently say he is the ideal candidate for this role. His deep roots in our community, combined with his dedication to public service and his compassionate approach, make him uniquely suited to serve as our Commissioner.

Justin's decision to run for office is driven by a genuine desire to make a positive impact. He is not one to seek the spotlight, but he recognizes that stepping up to serve is essential to drive the change our community needs. In the current political climate, running as an independent is a challenging endeavor, but it is precisely this independent stance that makes Justin the perfect candidate to bridge the divide and heal our community.

His platform is centered on four key areas: mental health, housing, economic development, and quality of place. Justin's commitment to prioritizing mental health, advocating for affordable housing, fostering economic growth, and enhancing our community's quality of place demonstrates his comprehensive vision for Cowlitz County's future.

Justin's leadership style is grounded in servant leadership, integrity, and compassion. He has consistently demonstrated his ability to lead teams, initiate impactful programs, and manage budgets responsibly. His strategic thinking and deep understanding of community needs enable him to address pressing issues effectively and make meaningful contributions. Justin is also humble enough to realize he doesn't have all the answers. He sees the value in bringing in experts and community members to contribute their knowledge and perspectives. This ability to connect groups and ideas is a benefit, not a threat. He is not deeply rooted in his own ideals and can listen, learn, and adapt for the greater good.

He has a willingness to envision the future of our community and advocate for the tough decisions necessary to achieve long-term success. I wholeheartedly believe that Justin Brown is the right person for the job. His track record coupled with his empathy and dedication to our community, make him a trustworthy and capable candidate for County Commissioner.

I am excited to support Justin and encourage you to join me in backing his campaign. Together, we can ensure a brighter future for Cowlitz County.
