

It is my honor to throw my full support and backing behind candidate Justin Brown for county commissioner. This is the first time I have ever publicly endorsed a candidate for any office, with the exception of my father, C.J. Nickerson, when he ran for school board. Politics and endorsing candidates is not my cup of tea, however, with Justin, and the political environment we are currently in the middle of, this was something important that I needed to do.

I have known Justin and worked closely with him for over 5 years. I have always respected his work ethic and common-sense approach to problem solving. I could go on and on about the father he is, the husband he is, and the giving person he is, but that is not what has caused me to back him. The reason I feel so strongly that this community needs Justin Brown is that he is tied to no person or political agenda. There is no one calling the shots for him in the background. Justin is his own man and will use that rare trait to do what is best for the community, instead of what is best for a political party or powerful individual.

I know Justin will look at issues facing this community and use his common sense and keen logic to work with both sides of the political isle. The middle ground has been absent in recent years from the pollical landscape on the national, state and local levels. Justin brings that middle ground. He brings stability and a level head at a time when that is most needed in our community.

When it comes to this election, join me in not voting for a side. Join me in not thinking this is “us versus them.” Rather join me in voting for what is best for our community! Join me in voting for Justin Brown.

Sincerely

Jim Nickerson
